I CONFIRM

1. Permission. The lead artist may license the songs above for synchronisation (use in videos, films, podcasts, ads and similar) through cadential., which acts as the lead artist's non-exclusive agent. I keep my ownership and can license my contribution elsewhere.
2. Edits and credit. I consent to the edits a licence allows (trimming, looping, fading, adding voiceover, dialogue or sound effects, and any further changes the lead artist has opted in to) and to the song being used without my name where the licence does not require a credit. This is my moral rights consent, limited to uses within a licence.
3. Payment. cadential. pays all licence money to the lead artist. Any share for me is between me and the lead artist. I will not claim payment from cadential. or from anyone who licensed the song.
4. No conflicting deal. No label, publisher, distributor or sync agency controls the sync rights in my contribution, or if one does, it has agreed in writing. My contribution contains no uncleared samples.
5. Content ID. If my contribution is registered with YouTube Content ID or a similar system, I will release any claim against someone who holds a licence for it.
6. Performance royalties. This is about sync only. It does not affect royalties I collect through APRA AMCOS, ASCAP, BMI or a similar organisation.
7. Changing my mind. I can withdraw this consent for future licences by telling the lead artist and hello@usecadential.com in writing. Licences already sold stay valid.
